

Jews have always been a community drawn together by virtue of Torah. No matter where you may be, we welcome you to the Ziegler community through Today's Torah e-mail.

Oh, and did I mention that I am married to a yekke, a planner

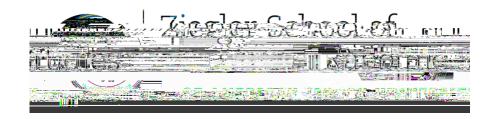

The Israelites were not fully ready when, indeed because, God Godself came to hurry them along. God could not, would not wait for them any longer.

In addition, what of me, still unpacked to go to rabbi camp? Far more importantly, what of all of us, waiting for the moment when we will be called again to Divine redemption? Can we possible hope to be prepared, to have our provisions ready to go at the time they are needed? The Midrash concludes, and I will leave you, with this note of hope:

Could it be thus also for the future (redemption) to come? Thus, Scripture teaches: "For you will not depart in haste, nor will you leave in flight [; For the Lord is marching before you, the God of Israel is your rear guard]" (Isa. 52:12).

May a new redemption, a new Exodus, come soon – and may we all be ready, and see it together in our lifetimes. Shabbat shalom.
